- DAYTIME CONTACT
- MAIN
- ORDER EMAIL
- SECONDARY
- SHIP TO

We enjoy staying in contact with you both through hearing your cheerful voices on phone calls and messages via email. When urgent matters arise, please know we will do our best to communicate with you as quickly as possible through both of these methods, as well as posting "Status Alerts" under the Network Partners tab on our website. As always, please reach out if you have specific questions or concerns about anything. We are happy to help!

Also, we'd like to make sure all contacts are properly labeled in P2 with the responsibilities they perform. If you'd like to know who has what labels, or you'd like to change or update someone's labels, please reach out to Lisa (lisa@fmpfoodbank.org).

FMP's very own "The Kitchen Sink Podcast"

This podcast debuted February 2024! Find this on our FMP web site under Listen to Our Podcast. Hunger is messy. It takes all of us to do the dishes. Because food is something that brings us all together, we're gathering stories from around our community about what brings us all to the messy kitchen sink after a good meal for the real conversation. Join our hosts and guests on the official podcast of Feed My People Food Bank as we dive into everything from fun personal insights to how we're tackling the issue of hunger, together.

Partner Highlight

Blair Food Pantry

Located just a few blocks apart, Blair Food Pantry and Blair Dollar General give an amazing example of food rescue in action. Walking into the store, it's as much a community atmosphere as a retail one. Holly and Dohn from the pantry greet staff and shoppers alike with friendly familiarity. John from the Dollar General serves the community through managing the store, donating a wide variety of products, and through his role as Blair's Mayor. The store donated over 4,000 pounds in 2023, and Holly tells me visitors to the pantry always clear out that table of donated items.

Thank you to Blair Food Pantry and Dollar

General for your collaborative work in keeping your community fed!

Product Highlight

We are excited to announce we have Toilet Paper (DN700366)!

This is a donated product that we will be receiving quarterly. Keeping this in mind, please only order what you need for 1 distribution, so there is enough for everyone.

FREE Extra Hot Horseradish (DN700090)!

Get creative with this one! Order some mayo to go with it to create a delicious creamy horseradish sauce. It makes the perfect spread for sandwiches. Stir some into mashed potatoes or on top of a baked potato. Add to your favorite salad dressing. It goes well with pork. The options are endless!
